The Spot Made Famous by the James Gang

The Scene of Another Train Robbery-Masked Men Capture the Englneer and Fireman and Rob the Express Car.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 24.-Blue train robbery at 5:40 o'clock last evening. Chicago & Alton passenger train No. 48 was held up by four bandits, who compelled the engineer to use his coal hammer to break open a safe. One of the robbers went through the passenger cars pretending to take a poll, while the others attended to the express messenger, fireman and engineer. It is said the robbers got but a small amount.

This is the second time that a Chicago & Alton train has been robbed in Blue Cut, which was made famous by a robbery by the James boys.

Inspector Flahive, of Kansas City, left with a posse of eight men for the place where the robbery occurred. It is about twelve miles from Kansas came at last, but when the lodging- City. The train robbed was a fast express en route from Chicago to Kansas City. None of the passengers were molested, and many of them did not know a robbery had occurred. The train was stopped by displaying a red flag. Not one shot was fired. The bandits had Winchesters, and are supposed to have had horses hitched close at hand.

> The train was in charge of Conductor A. J. Fell and Engineer James engine and brought the train to a stanstill in the midst of the cut. It was pitch dark. He looked out from his cab to ascertain the trouble when a gruff voice commanded him to get out of the cab and be quick about it. the fireman's coal pick. The engineer and fireman were then marched to the express car. Messenger Andy Shields was commanded to open up. He at first refused, but finally complied when convinced that Post's life was in danger.

The bandits then entered the car, rifled the money packages, securing $300 and a quantity of jewelry. The hold-up occupied altogether about five minutes. The passengers knew nothof it until long after the engine had been cut loose.

Conductor Fell describes the men as tor Flahive and eight picked men left Kansas City on a special train immediately after the report of the robbery reached here. The robbers are supposed to be railroad men, from the fact that they knew how to handle

LONDON, Oct. 22 .- A Berlin dispatch to the Daily News says: The St. Petersburg Viedomosti gives details of the Van massacre, secured from fugitives who have arrived at Elchmiadzin. They declare that no Armenians are left in the Van district. The Kurds, declaring that they were executing the sultan's will, mercilessly butchered the men, kidnapped the prettiest women and girls and threw the children into the pits intended for storing corn and buried them alive, in order to save ammunition. The victims were arranged in rows and were killed, two and three at a single shot. The details of the outrages on the priests and temples and the sacred books and vessels are indescribably revolting. CZAR AND EMPEROR.

Meeting at Darmstadt Was of a Friendly Character. BERLIN, Oct. 22.-The Reichsanzeiger, the official gazette, says that the meeting of the czar and emperor, at Darmstadt, Monday, took place without ceremony and was of an intimate character, corresponding with traditional friendship and family relations of both rulers. The emperor, the Reichsanzeiger says, will officially return the czar's visit to Germany by a visit to St. Petersburg next summer.

> The United States Will Not Interfere in Turkish Affaire. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 22.-In an interview with a representative of the United Associated Presses yesterday Hon. A. W. Terrill, United States minthe supreme court of that territory ister to Turkey, said the relations of the United States with Turkey were of the most cordial character. Not a single American citizen had been sacrificed during the late massacre in Constantinople and it was highly improbable that the United States government would depart from its traditional policy of nonintervention by meddling in Turkey's affales.

Kentucky Young Men Undertake to Break Up a Mormon Meeting.

WEST LIBERTY, Ky., Oct. 25.-Mormon elders have been holding meeting in Elliott county, and Elit Isom. and his family joined the church. Friday night three young men of the name of Sparks declared that they would break up the Mormon business, and started for the meeting. They stopped at the home of Bill Isom, and demanded admittance. They were admitted, but when Isom learned their mission he put them out and shut the door. The young men fired through the doors and windows. Etit Isom was shot twice in the breast, and Mrs. Isom was shot in the abdomen. The injuries to both are considered fatal. The Sparks fled. after the shooting and have not been captured. The Mormons are blamed. for the whole trouble and indignation against them is strong. Rev. Frederick Temple Appointed Archbishop of Canterbury.
